COMPLAINT AGAINST NASHVILLE POLICE OFFICER PG #1

You have the right to make a complaint against an employee of the Nashville Police Department for any improper conduct by an officer. This agency might find after investigation that there is not enough evidence to warrant action on your complaint. Even if this is the case, you have the right to make the complaint and have it investigated if you believe an employee behaved inappropriately.

Citizen complaints and any reports of findings relating to complaints will be retained by this department for at least (5) years.

Pursuant to Michigan law, it is against the law to make any complaint that you know to be false.

If you make a complaint against an officer knowing that it is false, you may be prosecuted.

I have read and understand the above statement.
